Republican Convention.

The Republicans of Brunswick county will meet in convention, near Town Creek upper bridge, at the Township House, on Saturday, June 20th, at 12 m, to determine upon the issues of the campaign, and to nominate a county ticket, and appoint an Executive Committee for the term of two years. Dr. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is half as valuable as people say it is, no family should be without it. Certainly no son, be he lawyer, doctor, minister, or of any other profession, should start on a journey without it. No sailor, fireman, or woodsman should be without it. In fact, it is needed wherever there is an ache sprain, cut, bruise, cough or cold.

Farmers and "Horse Men" are constantly inquiring what we know of the merits of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, and in reply, we would say, through the columns of the POST that we have heard from hundreds who have used them with gratifying result; that has also our experience.

Judicial Convention—Fourth District.

A Republican Convention, for the Fourth Judicial District of North Carolina, will be held at Magnolia, Duplin county, on Tuesday, June 16th, 1874, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of electing in nomination candidates for Judge and Solicitor of the District and to appoint a District Executive Committee, consisting of one from each county in the Judicial District. Delegates entitled to a seat and vote in the Convention must be regularly elected by a County Convention or appointed by County Committees, through their Chairman; each County will be entitled to double the number of delegates, but may have members of the lower branch of the General Assembly, with the same number of alternates.

THE walls of the second story of the new Postoffice building are fast approaching completion.

THE ghosts of the contestants in the Regatta last Monday, are occasionally seen hovering about the Dram Tree, like the Flying Dutchman about the Cape.

H. NEIL MCKAY, Esq., Republican candidate for Congress from this District, is now at Beaufort. He will set the ball in motion at the proper time and make salary grabbers and their supporters look quite small.

THE Carolina Central Railway offer excursion tickets over their road, for the season, at rates low enough to satisfy all. "Look out for the train when the bell rings," and go West, all ye who are able to escape the heated term.

A CORRECTION.—The Republican County Convention of Brunswick county, by an error of our types was authorized to be called on the 10th of June, when it should have been the 20th. All who are interested should take notice.

NUTT STREET.—Dray drivers have been in the habit of using Nutt street since it was planked as a race course for their teams. Besides the cruelty of racing dray horses it will soon wear out the planks. The city autherities have taken proper precadtions against the continuance of it.

THE Raleigh News pays the Democracy of Franklin county the dubious compliment of voting more than its registered strength. As the laws require the registration of all voters, the Franklin Democrats must stuff ballot boxes, or by some other disreputable means vote more than its registered strength.

PURCHASETS will do well to examine the valuable stock advertised in yesterday and to-day's POST by Messrs. David & Weil. These gentleman have an immense supply of ready made clothing which they offer, and to those who find it difficult to get a fit, they offer the services of a first class tailor, who can give satisfaction.

A LUNATIC.—Essex Stevens, a colored lunatic, was brought to this city yesterday from Duplin, and placed in the charge of sheriff Black. The unfortunate man escaped from the County Poor House about the first of May, but as he alarmed the community in which he stopped, by his threats, he was arrested. and discovered.

SOME enterprising gentleman has erected on Nutt street, near the Farmer's Hotel, machinery, and put in operation a business which cause his neighbors some uneasiness. We are not able to say what the work is, but as large quantities of kerosene are used near fire, a dangerous explosion or fire is apprehended in the same neighborhood that one occurred in something more than a year ago.

Col. J. Ballentine, of Abbottsburg, long a prominent citizen of Bladen County, has publically announced his resolution to no longer support the Democratic nominees. Thns the party of real conservatism and of repose, is constantly gaining strenth. The spurious article which is attempting to sail under that name, and which finds itself nothing, if it is not convulsing the country with the agitatiou of dead and dying issues, will no longer delude persons who desire quiet and prosperity for the country.

REVENUE CUTTER. — The Revenue Cutter W. H. Crawford, under charge of First Lieutenant George W. Bailey, Commaading, arrived at this port this morning. As soon as she takes in her stores she will commence her duty on this station, cruising from Beaufort, N. C., to Georgetown, S. C. The Crawford was formerly the gunboat and Revenue Cutter Nansemond. She has a reputation for speed, surpassed by few boats in the service, and her trip from Philadelphia was quick. She left that City last Saturday, and stopped several hours at the Breakwater.

GENERAL NEWS.

Chief Justice Waite is to be honored by having a hotel named after him in his native town of Lynn, Mass.

Mr. A. H. Stephens has made his fifth attempt to "get through with Mr. B. H. Hill." As usual, the letter fills several columns.

It has been discovered that William Starkey, clerk of the Police Court in New Haven, is a defaulter, and has left for parts unknown.

The last little girl who has "roped" her way to glory is a daughter of Dennis Maloney, of Rondout, who jumped 233 times and then died.

A dispatch from Bombay to London says the wet season has fairly set in.—The rains are heavy, and there is much rejoicing at their prospective beneficial effect upon the crops.

The Czar and the Grand Duke Alexis greeted the ex-Prince Imperial very cordially, as they passed along the line of the military cadets during the recent review at Woolwich, England.

A dispatch from San Francisco, dated the 8th says: "Grover, for Governor of Oregon, beats Tolman about 450 votes. The friends of Williams, for Congress, still have hope in his election.—The vote is very close.

Five active members of the volunteer fire department of Williamsport, arrested on suspicion of being incendiaries, have confessed to the burning of nearly all the property, over $1,000,000, destroyed there since the great fire of August, 1871

A new planet was discovered at 10 o'clock on Monday night by Lewis Swift, of Rochester, N. Y. It is near the Cameleopard's breast, is quite bright, and has a tail about half a degree in length. Its motion is slow and toward the earth.

The Secretary of War received intimation while at West Point on Monday of the death, at Keokuk, Iowa, of his only son, Willie. He left at once for that place. When the sad intelligence was communicated to Gen. Belknap he was greatly overcome by his feelings.

The American lady to whom the young Duke Nicholas of Russia gave his mother's stolen Diamonds, is now in Paris, with the jewels, worth 500,000f., in her possession. She is described as intelligent and beautiful. The Duke is described as madly in love with her, and wishes to marry her.

The Hon. George W. Julian, of Indiana, dates the foundation of his family in this country back to 1750, when one of his ancestors, Rudolph Waymire, a German, settled in North Carolina. The family recently held a reunion at Dayton, Ohio, when Mr. Julian and Mr. John Newman, president of the Indiana Central railroad, were among those present.

The provision in the tariff bill to remove extract of hemlock bark from the free list is the means of a good deal of ridicule at the expense of General Butler. This gentleman is averse to the provision on the ground that the hemlock forests would be destroyed by the search for the extract. Mr. Conger said in the House that he could take the gentleman from Essex to the forests in his State, and as they were so large, the General could not find his way out, and he would be lost. General Butler has been jocosely informed by his Congressional colleagues that if this is so, as Mr. Conger says, they are for the provision in the bill to a man.

The Newspaper Train on the Pennsylvania Railroad now carries a passen train. It starts from Jersey City at 4:10 A. M. and arrives at West Philadelphia at 6:57. The section between New Jersey and Trenton is run at the rate of a mile a minute. The train has been in operation about a year, and has met with but one accident, when it struck a carriage, killing two persons. When the train was first put on it was manned by an engineer, fireman, and two men to handle the papers. They were volunters, and signed a paper releasing the company from all responsibility in case of accident. Upon no pretence or plea was any person allowed to ride. The company, finding that the train was as safe as any other, and that an additional car would add to its safety by giving more ballast to the locomotive, have added a passenger car thereto and opened the line to the public travel.

The Self suit was argued in the U. S. Circuit Court, yesterday, in Raleigh.

The Raleigh Republican says that work on the Postoffice is being rapidly pushed.

The Raleigh News speaks several kind words for Chief Justice Waite, who is in that city holding court.

Robert S. Young, a son of Mrs. Sarah V. Young, of Charlotte, had a favorite horse to whom he imparted some "circus" tricks. At a pic nic near Charlotte, on Saturday, Mr. Young was called upon for an exhibition, during which the horse became unmanageable and overpowered his master, tearing the flesh from him fearfully.—Dr. Jos. Graham being present, gave the necessary medical attention.

A Very Old Voter, Indeed.

The following extraordinary statement is given in the Bloomington, Ill., correspondence of the Louisville Courier-Journal, where it appears just as here printed:

"Having noticed in several journals articles claiming for their various localities the honor of having in their midst the oldest voter, I concluded to put in the claims of Monroe County, Indiana. Living near Bloomington is our venerable friend, William Ross, who, accordtng to his own account and family record, was born at Guilford Court house, N. C., May 17, 1759; consequently he is 115 years old the 17th of last month, May. Father Ross is in now very fine health, visits Bloomington frequently during Summer, kills squirrels with his rifle, chops wood, works in his garden, and occasionally follows the plow, and says he feels as young as he did half a century ago. He was not in the Revolutionary war, but was an eye-witness to the battle of Guilford Court-house, and makes no claim to having been a member of the military family of General Washington, or of ever having seen the General. He has voted for ninety-four years, but does not remember how many votes he has cast within that time, but must have been well on to 200 times, and has invariablo voted the regular old Democratic ticket, and never fails to pay his taxes. He is certainly the oldest man in the United States, if not in the world.

No Republic in France Just Yet.

Once more the Republic is overboard in France. Two factions that are moderate in the sense that the small boys say they are—less furious than the factions which are more furious than they are—these two doubtful moderates were the faint hope of a possible republic. They were the Right Centre and the Left Centre. The Left Centre is made up of republicans who like their house but do not want always to ride on the peak; they desire a good government and care comparatively little for the re- for the republican "idea" and doctrinaire fancies. The Right Centre are monarchists who do not belive in divine right, nor in any particular man, but prefer the notion of a permanent Executive to that of an elective Executive and believe that some men are better than others. Politieally the Right and Left Centres are nearer to one another than the Right Centre is to the Right or the Left Centre to the Left, and if they should coalesce they could establish a republic to which the Left Centre would give liberalism of spirit and for which the Right Centre might secure a strong constitutional form, in virtue of which the dregs of the people which tend to rule in democracies would be kept where the dregs belong. But the hope of this combination is finally done for, and one hundred and ten Deputies of the Left Centre have pitched negotiations into the water by a declaration for a definitive republic—a republic, of course, such as they want; not such as is possible or can be obtained. They would rather have no republic than not have their own.—Herald.

George Washington Horsewhipped.

A distinguished Bohemian, who, some weeks ago, visited Fredericksburg, and prowled about the sacred Washington precincts, tells me that tradition said that Mrs. Bushrod Washington was a regular Spartan mother. The oldest inhabitant told him that his father told him that his grandfather said that she one evening sud lenly appeared in the bar-room of the old Fredericksbury tavern in search of her illustrious son, the about seventeen years old, and finding him where she had positively forbidden him to come, listening with open mouth to the talk of travelers and village loungers, she drew a horsewhip from her cloak and laid it over his anointed head and broad shoulders, and so quickened his footsteps homeward considerably.—Grace Greenwood.

The Marriage of a Granddaugther of Brigham Young.

A joyous party assembled at the residence of Mr. Edmund Ellsworth recently to witness the marriage of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Rowennah W. Howard, to Mr. Charles B. Wilson.—The day selected, May 1, was the twenty-sixth birthday anniversary of the bride. The company was large and brilliant. There were representatives of the various learned professions, besides a fair sprinkling of mining superintendents and capitalists. Many ladies elegantly attired graced the occasion sion with their presence. The bride was beautifully dressed in steel-colored poplin, trimmed with silk of a lighter shade, the polonaise being trimmed with fringe. An opportunity was afforded the guests to examine the numerous wedding gifts. These were chiefly of solid siver, and were at once elegant and costly. The bride's cake was an elegant structure, standing about five feet high, in the form of a tower. The bridegroom is from a prominent New York family. The bride is a granddaughter of President Brigham Young, and is an own cousin of Col. Elmer Ellsworth, who was shot at Arling House in Alexandria, Va. The marriage rite of the Episcopal Church was used on the occasion.—Salt Lake Herald.

Civil Rights.

We have been watching with intense interest the progress of the Civil Rights bill in Congress. When it was passed by the Senate it seemed that it was in deference to the late Senator Sumner. When it arrived in the House it was consigned to its proper place in the calendar of bills, and on two occasions, the House has refused to call it up. It may be considered that the bill is dead; not only for this session, but for all time to come.

The question is of the expediency of the Civil Rights bill. Viewed, in that light, its adoption would prove ruinous to the very-class which its author hoped and designed it should benefit. It would be an irresistable ally of the Southern Democracy in drawing political lines by shades of color, and it would consign a minority of colored people into a helpless mass.

We have never had an exalted opinion of the common school system which prevails in the South. The country is too poor, if no other reason existed, to establish one worthy of the name, but in some communities, notably in this city, well directed efforts are being made for the education of all our youth. Should the civil rights bill become a law, and it be decided that mixed schools alone will be tolerated under it, there will no longer be a public school in the South. In obedience to a sentiment or prejudice, call it either, but one or the other, as strong as the partiality parents feel for their children, whites would refuse the forced association. All colored people who respect themselves and their children would refuse the forced association of the latter with those of white people, who did not want them. And it may be credited that where there are as many people of a different race inhabiting the same country as are in the South, that the sentiment of opposition, which Philosophers call selection, is as strong in one race as in the other. Doubtless each race desires, and if all are citizens, each should have the same legal rights which the other may possess. This, as an abstract proposition is undeniable. The law cannot be invoked by one race who are citizens, for the enforcement or protection of their rights, and denied to another race who are citizens, seeking the same.

But if the bill now before Congress becomes a law, it destroys and perhaps forever, the hope of the elevation of the colored people. That this race is capable of intellectual culture and effort is undeniable. The isolation in which it has stood ever since the fortunes of war liberated it is gradually disappearing. Every day has seen more and more of the white men and women of the South emerge from a prejudice, and lend the colored race a helping hand in the work of improving the condition of the latter. But if this bill becomes enacted into a law, and their association is forced, in schools, churches and elsewhere, the work of harmony which has been in progress for the past nine years will receive a disastrous check. The whites will desist from a further prosecution of their efforts, and the triumph of those people who persist in asserting that the colored people have, of right, no interest in the government, will be near at hand.

We believe that a large majority of the most intelligent colored people recoguize these facts; and while they earnestly desire all whites to yield to them what the laws have given, are absolutely opposed to the proposed law. They desire in common with all prudent men that it be not resurrected in the House of Representatives.

Boanerges at Faisons.

Boanerges goes to Faison's on the 24th to tell the people of Duplin what he knows about back pay. It is to be hoped that he will do as he did at Beaufort and that it will have the same thrilling effect. By the way estimates of the crowd who hung upon Boanerges 'lips, so to speak, at Beaufort, is variously estimated by different admirers of the great man. One enthusiastic friend, who must have been eating clams, and consequently saw double, set it down at One Thousand; another who had either eaten fewer clams, or began his count before his vision was entirely duplicated says that there were Eight Hundred; and a Newbern man who dees not indulge in clams or any anti-temperance fluids says that Boanerges and his friend, the Salary Grabber, had an audience of Six Hundred.

Again, we hope that Boanerges will not be called Joe. Davis. It must be very irritating to a great man to have his name mispelled. Almost as great a man as Boannerges himself once said something to that effect:

"To die upon a field of battle, and to hav my name misspelled!
Beastly thought! and such a one has all my martial ardor quelled.

Boanerges knows that the above couplet is from Locksley Hall, and he will readily and modestly admit that Mr. Tennyson is his peer.

Since the adove was in type, we learn that Boanerges will not go to Faison's.

In the event of war arising between any of the European powers and China the vast improvement recently made in the Chinese navy and naval armament will most likely be severely felt. The great shipbuilding yard at Foochow in February last ceased to be under European direction, and the Chinese assumed the superintendence. Fourteen magnificent ships have been launched from this yard, and the construction of another is now nearly completed. In the training ship at the Foochow dock yard, which has been under the charge of Capt. Tracy, a British naval officer, a number of native youths have gone through a course of mathematics and have been fitted to take command of vessels. Two 12 gun frigates are now in course of construction in the Chinese naval arsenal near Shanghai for the Chinese government. A breech-loading rifled steel gun has just been made at the Woolwich arsenal, designed for the armament of one of these frigates if it can compete successfully with a steel Krupp gun.

A Gloomy Prospect.

"Now," said he, "I will suppose myself to be a Gentile, and at my death in some way I have attained heaven – the heavens all Christians desire when they talk of 'sitting down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, in the Kingdom of God.' Well, the Angel opens for me one of the pearly gates of Paradise, and I am about to walk in and take my place, when my eye rests upon Jacob sitting there with his four wives, Leah, Rachael, Bilbah and Zilpha, with all their children. I draw back in disgust and tell the angel that I cannot sit near that old polygamist.

"Well, the angel kindly shows me in at another gate. But there I see David, 'the man after God's on heart,' and Solomon, the man whom God endowed with celestial wisdom; I see them with crowds of wives and hundreds of children. 'Worse and worse,' I tell the angel; 'I won't go in there. Is there no other place for me?"

"'Oh, yes,' replies my divine conductor, 'there is plenty of room for you outside, "for without are dogs, and soccerers, and murderers, and idolaterers, and whosever loveth and maketh a lie." I think that is the place that will just suit such particular people as you.' And so I am obliged to put up with the society of God's favorites, or with that of the devil's imps."—Orson Pratt's Address to to the Mormons.

The Prince of Wales is said to be one of the most inveterate clubmen in London. "Mrs. Wales," they say, has to sit up night after night to let Edward in.

A Texas Romance.

Nearly thirty years ago, when what was known as the Texas fever prevailed—not the cattle disease which has made so much mischief, but a fever for emigration—a number of wealthy gentlemen in Troup county, Georgia, believing that the State would eventually become the home of a large population, organized a land company and made up a fund for buying land there. They sent out an agent named Harrington, who was recalled before he had completed the business he had undertaken, and afterward a second agent was dispached to finish the work. The second agent, who was entrusted with a large amount of money, bore a reputation of unquestioned integrity, but shortly after his departure ugly rumors got into circluation about him, the members of the company gradually arrived at the conclusion that their confidence had been misplaced. Finally, as they never neard from him again, the contemplated purchase was dropped. Very recently a gentleman from Georgia happened to be looking over the Texas land records, when he found that forty-eight thousand acress of valuable land had been entered in the name of the Georgia company, that being the same land which Mr. Harrington had bargained for orignally, and which the second agent had bought and paid for, thus carrying out in good faith the use of the money of the company. Of course the land has gained greatly in value, and the shareholders, such of them as are alive, will receive a large profit on their investment. It is thought that the gentleman who was supposed to have absconded with the money intrusted to him, and who was so many years remembered only as a defaulter, was murdered by the land pirates who in those days abounded in Texas, and were noted for their desperate crimes.—Jefferson (Texas) Mail.

Why Weston Failed.

When Weston, the pedestrian, was gearanteed the needed support, he went into training, not according to pugilistic rules, but merely kept regular hours, ate nutritious food, avoided all spirituous and malt liquors, gave up the use of tobacco and walked a stated number of miles every day. After the first 114 miles, Weston was put to bed without any attention being given to the state of his feet. It is to this that he attributes his failure. For he said that after he rose the next morning his feet and legs felt numb and in poor condition, and the blood did not seem to circulate freely again during the entire walk. He still felt sure that he could accomplish the 500 miles within the allotted time, and imparted his feelings to his friends. Many of them backed their opinions with their money and suffered heavy losses in consequence. Weston had calculated to accomplish eighty-five miles before midnight on Tuesday. Had he done this there would have been only three hundred miles to walk in the four days succeeding, but he only made fifty-five miles On Wednesday, during an intermission, some spirits was poured into his shoes to stimulate the sluggish circulation of the blood in his feet. This softened the inner sole of his shoe, and while he walked it worked itself into a roll under the middle of his foot. After a time he began to feel much pain. He stopped, and on taking off his shoe, it was found that that thick skin on the sole of his foot had become lapped over, making a bad blister. When he started again he limped badly, and he did not take a step afterwards until the end that was a painless one. On Thursday, liniments were applied and his feet soaked in salt water, but every step was like treading upon coals of fire. On Friday he was stiff and foot sore at the start but afterwards his spirits rose and he made very fair time. At midnight he had accomplished only 365 miles, and it was beyond human possibility to complete 235 miles in the remaining twenty-four hours. Sunday afternoon Weston felt very well, with the exception of his foot, which was very sore. He slept soundly, and arose soon after noon. His receipts for the week exceed $8,000, which will leave him after his expenses are paid, a net gain of $5.000.

She Wants to Get Out.

A Western paper says: "A lady in a new spring silk takes refuge in a street-car from the shower. When she reaches her destination she pul's the bell-strap, but the car goes ahead, because somebody else had just pulled it. The calm expression leaves her face, and she pulls it again. Then a man in the lower corner rises and takes a tug at it. 'Idiot!' she mutters between her clenched teeth, at the same time seizing the strap with both hands and clinging to it as if it were her only safety from a grave. Just as the infuriated driver is bringing his horse to a halt the conductor shrieks wildly at her to let go. She lets go. Then he tries the prentice hand, and once more the car rolls merrily along. Five blocks from her destination she tumbles out with a demoniac look in her eyes, dashes home through the pelting rain, encounters her husband enjoying his slippered ease in a cushioned chair, and then lets loose upon the domestic circle a reign of terror, which is all the more appalling since it does not involve the nepenthe of death."

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted in the Republican Convention of the 3rd Congressional District of North Carolina, held at Fayetteville on the 19th of May, 1874.

Resolved, 1. That we reaffirm our belief in the correctness of the principles of the republican party, as set forth in the State and National Platforms.

Resolved, 2. That the equal rights of all men before the law is a cardinal principles of the Republican party, and the rights of each and every citizen, we distinctly affirm.

Resolved, 3. That the Republican party is in favor of proper and legitimate taxation for the support of common schools and desire the education of all classes of our people, without regard to race or color.

Resolved, 4. That there is a mutual dependence of our people upon one another, and that the advancement of learning, the development of the resources of our State, and the promotion of the public good, can only be secured by an open acknowledgment of this fundamental principle regardless of race, color or previous condition.

Resolved, 5. That the conduct of the Forty-Second Congress in extracting from the Treasury of the Nation vast sums of the peoples' money to enrich themselves is deserving of the condemnation of every honest man, and that no conscientious constituency ought to return to Congress a man, who after having pocketed five thousand dollars of "back pay," which he had contributed by his own vote to put into his own pocket, scorned and defied the demands of the people, and voted to continue to pay himself at the rate of seventy-five dollars a day.

Resolved, 6. That the government of this country belongs to the people, the poor as well as the rich; and the toiling masses of this land will not place their destinies in the hands of haughty aristocrats who have no sympathies with them or attachment to the Union of these States.

Resolved, 7. That the direct land tax of eight-tenths of one per cent. levied by the general government during the war, and collected out of a large portion of our people, in the years 1865 and '66, ought to be refunded to those who paid said tax, and that the present member of Congress from this District, when he was so eager in obtaining "back pay" for himself, should have thought something of the "back" taxes unequally and oppressively collected out of his constituents.

Resolved, 8. That "perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State, and ought not to be allowed," and as a consequence of this axiom, the monoply of the navigation of the Cape Fear River, and the Fisheries and Oyster Grounds of Carteret county is in an invasion of the rights of the free citizens of this country, and the Republican party in this district pledges its efforts to abolish said monopolies when it has the power.

Resolved, 9. That this Convention endorses the nomination of Thomas R. Purnell, the Republican Candidate for Superintendant of Public Instruction; and that this Convention pledges to him the hearty support of the party in this District.

Resolved, 10. Whereas, the Republican party of the 3rd Congressional District of North Carolina has been without a representative in the United States Congress for the past four years, we therefore resolve, that we have found in General Allan Rutherford, Third Auditor of the Treasury, an able, willing, and efficient worker in the interests of our people, we impose the fullest confidence in him, and the thanks of Republicans of this district are extended him through the voice of this Convention.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday, June 10th, 1874.

The Republican Party in North Carolina.

PLATFORM.

The following is the platform of the Republican party in North Carolina, adopted in Convention at Raleigh, April 17, 1872:

The Republicans of North Carolina in Convention assembled:

Resolved 1. That the platform and principles of the Republican party of North Carolina, as heretofore enunciated in its Conventions, are hereby re-affirmed, and events have proved that their practical enforcement is essential to the welfare of the country, and to the maintainance of the rights, interests and liberties of the people.

2. That the administration of President Grant meets with our hearty and unqualified approval, and our delegates to the National Republican Convention to assemble at Philadelphia on the 5th day of June next, are instructed to vote for his re-nomination to the Presidency of the United States.

3. That the Republican party of North Carolina favors as rapid a diminution and as early an extinction of all internal revenue taxation as the exigencies of the Government will permit, for the reason that the details of its collection are necessarily offensive, and, in many respects, oppressive to our people.

4. That all internal revenue taxes on distillation of fruit ought to be abolished.

5. That the Republican party of North Carolina recommend to the Congress of the United States the passage of a general amnesty bill, and the adoption of all necessary measures for the enforcement and protection of the civil and political rights of all classes of American citizens.

6. That in a free and representative government, we recognize the paramount obligation to provide efficiently for the general education, of the people, and we favor such legislation as will accomplish that end: that we respectfully recommend and ask of the national government, such aid, by the provision of public fund or the donation of public land to the purposes of establishing schools in the several States, as will secure to the masses of the people of all classes the benefits of a liberal education.

7. That we full endorse the acts of Congress, passed to secure equal rights and protection to the citizens of the United States, in the several States; and we respectfully recommend a continuance of the present laws and the adoption of such further legislation as will more certainly secure to the citizens, full and practical enjoyment of all their rights, privileges and liberties.

8. In the opinion of this convention, the Democratic majority of the last legislature, by consolidating into one act its numerous propositions to amend the State Constitution, endeavoring to force upon the people a false issue, and to force them into the adoption of obnoxious amendments, and inasmuch as all these propositions must be submitted to the next Legislature for ratification; before the same can be referred to the people; therefore,

Resolve 1. That the amendments proposed as a whole do not meet the approval of the Republican party, because their adoption would subvert essential principles of the existing Constitution.

2. That Republicans can endorse a portion of said amendments and the next General Assembly may adopt such of them as shall seem best for the general welfare.

9. That we cordially endorse the administration of Gov. Caldwell, and recognize the fact that our people may rely upon his firmness in upholding their interests and defending their rights; and we heartily thank him for resisting the revolutionary purposes of those who designed to deprive the citizen of the protection afforded by the Constitution.

10. That forgetful of personal preferences we pledge ourselves to support earnestly and without reserve, the candidates presented by this convention, believing that in unity alone is strength, and that principles are more important than men to the republicans of North Carolina.

The following is the plan of organization which was adopted:

Resolved, That hearafter the organization of the republican party of North Carolina shall be as follows:

1. A State Executive Committee of eleven members to be appointed by the presidents of the State Convention; and the presidents of the convention shall be ex-officio on of the members of such committee.

2 Congressional District Committee for each district, to be composed of one member from each county, to be appointed by the Congressional District Convention.

3. A County Executive Committee to be composed of one member from each township, to be appointed by the County Convention.

Resolved, That the present organization shall continue to exist until the new one shall be effected.

Resolved, That the representation in the county convention shall be in accordance with the plan of organization of the party heretofore adopted.

The State executive committee is as follows:

I E West, of Craven,
T B Keogh, of Guilford,
N W Lillington, of Davie,
S F Phillips, of Wake, ex-officio,
R W Logan, of Rutherford,
S T Carrow, of Beaufort
J W Hood, of Mecklenburg,
J H Harris, Wake,
R B Ellis, of Wake,
G L Mabson, of New Hanover,
J H Williamson, of Franklin.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT. 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artists, equally with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West," One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th,

MESSRS. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,

(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American, They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better recommendation than this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 11x 20 inches; representing a little Indian exile whose speaking eyes betray he longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

CANVASSERS WANTED.

THE SUN.

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows,

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when o moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper pulished. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,

TO THE POOR.

Why Pay $60 for a Sewing Machine When you can get one for $2.50.

ECHO ANSWERS, WHY?

A DEATH BLOW TO MONOPOLIES

A SEWING MACHINE FOR $2.50.

After many years experience in the manufacture of all kinds of sewing machines, we were convinced that an instument capable of doing all kinds of plain sewing [suitable for the use of families who cannot afford to get one at the rates maintained by the large companies], easily handled, simply and strongly made, and therefore not liable to get out of repair, and above all sold for a low price, would meet with millions of friends among the poor, and acting upon this hypothesis, we organized a stock company, and after many experiments at last succeeded in constructing a machine that will fully meet the above requirments. It is a most wonderful and simply constuited machines for family use. Comlete in all its parts. Uses the straight eye pointed needle self threading direct upright positive motion, new tension, light running, smooth and noiseless, will stitch, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Uses the thread direct from the spool: will do all kinds of work, light or heavy, from muslin to leather, uses all kind of thread. Each instrument is highly polished, and is not only fine looking, but at all times reliable, making it a practical scientific mechanical invention at an exceedingly low figure. The demand has lately exceeded our capacity of supply, but we are now adding some new and improved machinery that will before long enable us to keep ahead of the demand. It is the first and only success in manufacturing a good reliable and substantial low-priced sewing machine. Its extremely low price places it within the reach of all. Its simplicity and strength adapts it to all kinds of work, and enables the most ignorant to make use of it.

Our instrument can be used by any one, old or young, without any further directions than those furnished with each one.

The large shoe factories in the eastern states are now using over one hundred of these machines, and express themselves delighted with them.

The single fact that there are over 270 people employed in manufacturing these instruments will give some idea of the vastness of our enterprise and that the demand so far has exceeded the supply will serve to show the immense amount of our sales.

In every case where satisfaction is not given we will cheerfully refund the money.

A few state rights free to thoroughly responsible parties. Only those who can furnish the very best references need address us. Triflers will please wast no time in correspondence, as our time is fully occupied. Address all letters to

of our Retail Sales of every first and last Fridays in each month for the amount to be deposited in the "Bank of New Hanover" subject to the order of the President of the Ladies' Benevolent Society. This we feel justifiable in doing for the following reasons:

"THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR OF OUR CITY,"

First—That we are young men and our expenses are light.

Second—That we have met with unexpected success in the way of patronage from all classes of our people, thereby largely increasing our sales.

Third—That we feel it the duty of some one to aid the poor, and who is better able to do it than the merchant?

We are the pioneers in this good work and hope through the continued confidence and patronage of our people to be able to carry out our good intentions.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

WILMINGTON, N, C., April 22, 1874.

NOTICE.

I WOULD MOST RESPECTFULLY CALL the attention of the citizens to the fact that the warm and sickly season is near at hand, and it becomes my duty to adopt the most stringent sanitary measures at this particular time to preserve the health of the city and prevent the introduction of disease that may originate from foul and unwholesome matter, filth, garbage, trash and refuse matter which has a tendency to create unwholesome and offensive odors. In order to prevent as far as possible the spread of those diseases peculiarly incident to this season of the year I would most respectfully solicit the co-operation of the citizens generally in placing our city in such a sanitary condition as to render it as far as practicable impregnable, at least to those diseases which originate from foul and unwholesome matter. To this end the entire force of the city will be employed in cleansing, draining, cleaning, disinfecting and removing trash, &c., for at least the next fifteen or twenty days. All persons are requested to have the trash, offal, refuse matter, &c., cleaned from their premises and placed upon the streets, whence they will be removed immediately. When it is convenient please use boxes or barrels.

Persons needing disinfectants can have the same free of charge by calling at my office.

The health officers, designated by a yellow rosette, may be notified of any stagnant water standing upon any lot, or damp cellar or anything that would impair the health of the city, and any complaint lodged at this office shall receive prompt attention.

Believing that a proper sanitary condition adopted now, at this early season, will insure a healthy summer I earnestly solicit the aid and co-operation of all the good citizens to accomplish this good end.

Respectfully, &c., GEO W. PRICE, JR.,

MISCELLANEOUS.

Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Tyndall, Prof Huxley, Lord Lytton, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Oliphant, Dr W. B. Carpenter, C. Kingsley, Erckmann Chatrain, Ivan Turguenieff, Matthew Arnold, W. E. H. Lecky, Miss Thackeray, Miss Malock, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, Katharine C. Macquoid, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald, Froude, and Gladstone, are some of the eminent authors lately represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1874, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turguenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs. Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together with an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year (52 numbers,) postpaid, on receipt of $8; or six copies for $40.
